

ECFIN Structural Reforms Workshop "Inequality and Structural Reforms: Methodological Concerns"

Tuesday 16th May 2017

08:30 - 08:50	Welcome coffee
08:50 - 09:00	Introduction: What to measure and how: methodological concerns Mary Veronica Tovšak Pleterski (DG ECFIN)
09:00 - 11:00	Session I – Analysis of labour and product market reforms Chair: Jan in't Veld (DG ECFIN)
09:10 - 09:40	A general equilibrium (LM and PM reforms) perspective to inequality Jean-Olivier Hairault (PSE, Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne)
09:40 - 10:10	The effects of labour market reforms: an agent-based model approach Giovanni Dosi (Institute of Economics, Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies - Pisa)
10:10 - 10:40	Empirical analysis of the distributional impact of structural reforms Orsetta Causa and Mikkel Hermansen (OECD Economics Department)
10:40 - 11:10	General discussion - introductory comments by Zsolt Darvas (Bruegel)
11:10 - 11:30	Coffee Break
11:30 - 13:15	Session II – Analysis of tax reforms Chair: Salvador Barrios (JRC IPTS Seville)
11:40 - 12:10	Implications from panel data techniques Andreas Peichl (Centre for European Economic Research (ZEW))
12:10 - 12:40	Synthetic Control Method: an empirical analysis of tax reforms Daniel Waldenstrom (Paris School of Economics, CEPR and IZA)
12:40 - 13:10	General discussion - introductory comments by Elvire Guillaud (Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne)
13:10 - 13:15	Conclusions Mary Veronica Tovšak Pleterski (DG ECFIN)
13:20	Lunch Buffet